The challenge by Jennifer Jones: 4 choreographers, asked to create a 4-count step combo to a certain sequenced pattern, 4 walls, and the music chosen after the steps submitted. Adeline chose the first sequence, Georgie the second, Jennifer the third and Rosie the final sequence. The song was chosen after listening to music with friends at the Buffalo Club. The best part of this was each lovely lady chose blindly and their steps pared beautifully together. The lyrics hit perfectly as well, even saying Rosie's name while we danced her section! This was a wonderful experience with friends from all over the world. I hope you enjoy the dance a tiny bit more, now knowing how it was created!! Such a blessing.

BONUS: this also makes a fantastic couples/partner dance!! Check it out on copperknob.

Thank- you and enjoy both dances.
